

Dalmatia Coup Tightens Grip Of d'Annunzio

Descent Upon Zara Swells Forces to 50,000, Amply Supplied With Food and All Sorts of Equipment

Regulars Loyal to Poet

Commanders Say Entire Divisions Will Join the Movement Into Istria

Fiume, Nov. 18. (By The Associated Press).—Gabriele d'Annunzio's recent stroke in Dalmatia executed in his descent upon Zara, has augmented his land and sea forces to such an extent that they are now estimated to number 50,000 men.

The Italian forces of occupation in Dalmatia comprise an army corps, with one division at Zara and another at Sebenico. All these troops are now registered under d'Annunzio's banners and are said to have ample supplies and all sorts of equipment assuring their subsistence for several months. All arms of the service are represented in the command. It is considered certain here that d'Annunzio will be able to maintain his present position secure against lack of provisions.

There is evidence, furthermore, that d'Annunzio's recent coup struck a responsive chord in all ranks of the Italian regular army, and it is contended by his supporters that any move made to prevent his carrying out his plans would be frustrated by the inability of the government to control the present regular troops.

Recent events appear to justify the belief that the regular forces will be loyal to the poet, if occasion demands. Corps commanders guarding the armistice line along the Jugo Slav frontier assert they will be unable to prevent a break in their forces, and should Captain d'Annunzio make a move into Istria it is claimed that whole divisions will follow him.

Several merchant ships have arrived here during the last few days bringing foodstuffs and supplies from Ancona. This traffic is expected to be much augmented as a result of the support given Captain d'Annunzio by the Italian navy.

Losses of Page Baggage, Valued At $3,000, To Be Investigated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—An investigation of the loss of a considerable quantity of household goods and baggage shipped from Rome by Thomas Nelson Page, American Ambassador to Italy, was ordered to-day by Chairman Payne of the Shipping Board. The principal purpose of the inquiry is to establish whether the goods were lost on Shipping Board vessels or on trains.

Mr. Page reported that the goods missing were valued at $3,000, but it was said at the Shipping Board offices that he gave no detailed list other than the trunk containing a number of dresses belonging to Mrs. Page.
